

MADEIRA

"I know no wine of its class that can beat Madeira when at its best... In fact, I think Madeira and Burgundy carry combined intensity and complexity of vinous delights further than any other wines."

-George Saintsbury, Notes on a Cellarbook (1920)

Madeira's Moment

After more than a century in unconscionable obscurity, Madeira is back. Once America's most celebrated wine, Madeira went out of style after the War Between the States—the victim of both fashion and phylloxera. But what goes around, comes around: Madeira has been rediscovered by a new generation of wine lovers, attracted not just to its history, but to its mesmerizing richness and perfume.

Journalists have played a key role in this reawakening. More articles on Madeira have appeared in American magazines and newspapers in the past few years than in the previous two decades combined. Even a partial list of influential publications running recent major pieces on Madeira includes the Wine Spectator, Wine & Spirits, The New York Times, Food & Wine, Forbes FYI, Saveur, Robb Report, and The Wall Street Journal.

The qualities that attract Americans to Madeira today were well known to our forefathers. For more than 200 years—from the early colonial period until the Victorian era—Madeira was easily the most revered wine in America. Wealthy families bought Madeira by the cask, cherishing the wines through generations. Over time, they learned to expect magic from their Madeiras—nearly unimaginable complexity on the nose and an ambrosial marriage of sweetness and tanginess on the palate. They learned that Madeira is virtually immune to oxygen and that even old examples can be kept for months once opened. And they learned that Madeira is capable of improving for at least a century, and thriving for a century more.

The Rare Wine Co.

Having been major buyers since the 1980's (and accumulating the greatest inventory of old Madeira in America), our colleagues at The Rare Wine Co. have played a major role in the wine's revival. The key to their success has been their relationships with the world's few remaining sources of legendary old Madeiras.

This includes the firms of Barbeito and D'Oliveira, which, of the island's elite producers, have the richest stocks of old wines at reasonable prices. They are honored to be the sole U.S. importer for old wines of both companies.

In addition to Barbeito and D'Oliveira, a few family cellars in Madeira still have old wines, either in bottle, demijohn or cask. They have been fortunate to tap into some of these sources as well, securing some extraordinary and irreplaceable wines. These families are also invaluable blending wine sources for The Rare Wine Co.'s "vintage character" Historic Series of wines.
