

Rivas sees shorter aging in large French oak for 6 months, producing a more forward, fruit driven wine from Lopez, while staying true to the character and old-world style that personifies this exceptional Argentinian estate.

Rivas sees shorter aging in large French oak for 6 months, producing a more forward, fruit driven wine from Lopez, while staying true to the character and old-world style that personifies this exceptional Argentinian estate.

Rivas sees shorter aging in large French oak for 6 months, producing a more forward, fruit driven wine from Lopez, while staying true to the character and old-world style that personifies this exceptional Argentinian estate.

Rivas sees shorter aging in large French oak for 6 months, producing a more forward, fruit driven wine from Lopez, while staying true to the character and old-world style that personifies this exceptional Argentinian estate.

